Dear Sir Knights,

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Let us go forth into this New Year by using the Lord's Prayer as our New Year's resolution.

OUR FATHER WHO ART IN HEAVEN: Let us give Him glory and praise in church and in our daily lives by setting examples to our children and to our community. Raise up our hands to heaven, saying his praises.

HALLOWED BE THY NAME: Let us not take His name in vain. Give His name reverence; give your relatives, friends, and neighbors the same respect as the Lord. Speak as reverently of our Priests, Deacons, and Religious as you would the Lord. Sing Glory to His name.

THY KINGDOM COME, THY WILL BE DONE, ON EARTH AS IT IS IN HEAVEN: As we follow the church's teachings on earth, we follow the Ten Commandments by receiving the sacraments, and living our faith. We will receive heaven's Blessings.

GIVE US THIS DAY OUR DAILY BREAD: A full day's work for a full day's pay. We reap what we sow in our daily lives; as we receive, we must be charitable to church in our tidings, and to those less fortunate.

AND FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES AS WE FORGIVE THOSE WHO TRESPASS AGAINST US: Find it in your heart to be forgiving to those who have hurt us in words, deeds, or actions. Let us mend fences by healing the hurt we have caused in what we have failed to do. Find that Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism, will guide us all.

AND LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION, BUT DELIVER US FROM EVIL: Lead us from drugs, liquor, and immorality. Let us not steal, falsely accuse or hold malice in our hearts for anyone. Let us not get our pride in the way of healing through God's Word. God will deliver us through prayer, church, and a deeper faith. God will heal our sins, so we may find salvation. Come to the Lord's table, and be delivered from EVIL. Joseph was a carpenter who picked up his tools of faith on Christmas night. The apostles were fishers of men and women, their words in the Bible healed us.

LIVE THE OUR FATHER AS A NEW YEARS RESOLUTION, AMEN!

Everyone had such a great time at the Christmas Party and Gift Exchange without having a meeting, we all had a better time of fellowship that we hadn't known before. What a nice ending to the Year! Thank you to all that brought their wares of feasting. With CHRIST in Christmas, we are all renewed in his birth. Don Divney got the Helmet, and Delores Saylor received the Plate.

Please make sure your reservations are in for the Clergy Night dinner, through your council. We will need Color Corp and Color Guard people for upcoming events.

Enclosed in this newsletter, the year end Fraternal Survey Sheet, fill it out and mail or bring it to the next meeting. If you're going to mail it, then send it to Sir Knight Ralph E. Blamer 3876 Clearwater Dr., Columbus Ohio 43232. This information is important to us as the 4th degree; you will also need to do one for your Council as well.

Please turn in all applications for the March Exemplification ASAP. Waiver forms and money should be turned in ASAP to complete the process. Please bring your candidate and his wife and we will make them welcome. We will also announce when the meetings take place and tell him all the needs and processes of belonging to the fourth degree.

Please get your reservations for the PFN Dinner and Dance into Jerry Lowery as well as money. Information is in the newsletter about the time, place, and the menu. Looking forward to another great evening.

Please take care of your dues, responsibilities in a timely matter, to help out the comptroller.

Get your raffle tickets and the money, in by the next meeting.

May we find salvation in the NEW YEAR? Come walk with the LORD. AMEN!

Fraternally yours,

Ralph Blamer, Faithful Navigator

PS: We still Need Officers' positions filled. Please step forward and help your Assembly

The Captain's Corner

AN URGENT MESSAGE: YOUR ASSEMBLY NEEDS YOUR HELP!

The Captain's position is still vacant. Your faithful Captain, Chuck Harris, moved to Texas. And Charlene Core stepped down from her position, effective September 1st. No one has stepped forward to take the position yet. THEREFORE, A NEW CAPTAIN and his Lady IS NEEDED. Please, Sir Knights and Ladies, give some serious prayer and thought to this office. It is a very important one for the Assembly. If you have any questions about what the position requires, please give your Faithful Navigator Ralph Blamer (321-4303) or Charlene Core (860-1855) a call. Charlene said she will give the new Lady any assistance that she can to make her job easier but she also said that "assistance" is the "operative" word.

The following announcements are pertinent this month:

1. The Top of the Month Dinner: The Assembly has scheduled the TOTM at TAT Restaurant on the first Tuesday of the month, Tuesday, January 2nd, at 7:00 PM! Come join us! Please call Charlene, at (614) 860-1855 or you can e-mail her at core.home@juno.com to let her know if you are coming so she can give the restaurant an estimate of how many to expect. This is good PR for the Assembly and also gives us better service. If you have a restaurant you would like to recommend as a TOTM suggestion, please call Ralph Blamer (321-4303) or Charlene Core (860-1855).
2. Lady Teresa Iannaggi has volunteered to host the ladies meeting in January. We will have a baby shower and PDHC (Pregnancy Decision Health Center) will be the recipients of the gifts. Each one is asked to bring a present for the shower.
3. POTLUCKS before the meetings:
 - JANUARY: Lady Teresa will provide sloppy Joes and a cake for the shower and you are asked to bring a side dish of vegetables or salads to go with them.
 - FEBRUARY: Our annual chili and cherry cook off contest! The men make the chili and the ladies bring the cherry stuff.
 - MARCH: anything green or Irish in honor of St. Patrick's Day.

BIRTHDAYS AND ANNIVERSARIES

The officers of Assembly 809 would like me to include the birthdays and anniversaries of our members and their ladies in our newsletter. I can only do that with your cooperation.

Our faithful Comptroller has given me a list with the birthdays of all the members. Therefore, I would ask that each Sir Knight send me your anniversary date and the date of your lady's birthday, if you have not done so already.

Then I will compile them and post the birthdays and anniversaries that fall during the month of the newsletter's publication – see below and box at right.

Then we would ask that the rest of you to make a note of those birthdays and anniversaries and remember the recipients in special prayers on their special days. The power of prayer is awesome and this will be a holy endeavor for the Knights.

It will not cost any of us any money, but the rewards will be great.

You can mail the information to me, Charlene Core, at 2083 Birchview Rd., Reynoldsburg, Ohio 43068, or e-mail it to core.home@juno.com.

Thanks for your participation

A woman was lamenting over the fact that she had buried four husbands. A gentlemen who overheard her conversation, asked. "What were your husbands like?"

"The first one was a billionaire, the second one was a magician, the third one was an evangelist and the last one was an undertaker!" she replied.

"Oh, I get it," he said. "One for the money, two for the shoe, three to get ready and four to go!"

NEXT EXEMPLIFICATION IS MARCH 18TH IN NEWARK

Yes, you did read that right! Our next exemplification will be in Newark the weekend of March 16th, 17th, and 18th. It will follow the usual format and the actual exemplification will take place on Sunday morning, the 18th. Mark your calendars and make your plans now.

Since it will be earlier than usual, we need to start recruiting new members immediately. Let us make this an exciting time for the Fourth Degree and get as many Third Degree Knights as possible to commit to the Fourth Degree now. There are many out there who are not 4th Degree Knights and only because they have never been asked to take that next step and join the 4th Degree. Maybe you can remember when you were asked – what an honor! And every measure was taken to make that time a special one for you. So do the same for your fellow Knights who may just be waiting for you to approach him. You need to take that next step and invite him to join our ranks and maybe that will be just the incentive he needs to take his next step.

There is no greater place to be in the Knights of Columbus than in the Fourth Degree. Get busy now and check your Council's roster and see who is still a Third Degree member and needs an extra push to join us.

Ask him now!!!

Iannaggi.

"RELATIONSHIPS"

Ecclesiastes 4:2, "A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken." (NLT)

Relationships are an important part of life. We begin a relationship with someone from the moment we are born and most of us will continue in relationships of some sort until the day we die. God encourages relationships. The Bible is full of them. It is obvious that from the beginning of time, people need people. Even God Himself said about Adam in Genesis 2:18, "It is not good for man to be alone. I will make a companion who will help him." Jesus, too, did not do life alone. He had His family, friends, and disciples to love, help, and encourages Him throughout His life here on earth.

Today, I want to take a look at the different relationships in our lives. I also want to point out the importance of prioritizing them. Friends, if you want to lead a balanced life with purpose, it is crucial to order the relationships in your life God's way.

Your Relationship with God. This should be the most important relationship in your life. Don't say that you don't have time—you do. We make the time for what is important to us, don't we? The way to get to know God better is to spend time in His Word. Try spending at least fifteen minutes of uninterrupted time with the Lord every day. More would be better, but do what you can to develop the habit. God's Word will teach, equip, cheer, encourage, and guide you.

Your Relationship with your husband....if you are married, of course. Just like it's important to spend time with God, it's also important to make time for your husband. I have found that this relationship is the one that takes the most effort for me. I love my husband dearly, but I also take him for granted the most. It's easy for me to allow my children, friends, or just busyness to get in the way of time with my husband. Set aside time each morning and evening to communicate with your husband in some way. Hug and kiss often and say "I love you" whenever you get the chance. Let your actions show him and others that you respect and honor him. One thing that my husband and I have started doing again is dating. Just like before we were married, we go out on dates. It takes time, effort, and often money, but it's worth the investment. If money is tight, create a date at home or go to the park or for a walk together. Whatever it takes, spend time alone together, and make it a weekly habit.

Your relationship with your children....if you are a parent. When I became a mom, I did not know what I was in for. I had no idea the extent of sacrifice it would take to raise my children. It's worth every bit of it too. I once read that kids spell love - T I M E. I believe that with all my heart. God's Word tells us that children are a gift from Him. We are to treat them like that, a gift. Motherhood is a high calling....possibly the highest we will ever have in our lives. It requires time and special attention. They are only with us for a short time, so let's make the most of it.

Your relationship with others. This includes everyone reading this. Our relationships with other people could include family, friends, business associates, mentors, neighbors and more. These are important, and in order to develop, grow, and nurture these relationships, time is needed. I happen to be blessed with many friends and cherished family members. Although I don't have time to spend with them each day, I always want them to know how important they are in my life and how much I love them. That takes effort on my part, but what I receive back is priceless. If you find yourself lacking in this area, create special moments with these special people in your life. Make a phone call. Mail a card. Send an email. Invite to lunch. Have a party. Create a "girls' night out" event. Pray for them.

Ecclesiastes 4:2 tells us that alone we can be attacked and defeated. This says to me, that we need people in our lives. We weren't meant to go this life alone. It is often someone close to me who reminds me that I'm special when I'm feeling defeated. When I am alone, I often listen to the wrong voice if I'm not careful. The people in my life offer me love, encouragement, and fulfillment that tell me otherwise. I often refer to them as Jesus with skin on. This verse goes on to say that "two can stand back to back and conquer". Then there is my favorite part. It's when God is a part of our relationships. "Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken."

My Prayer for Today: Dear Lord, Bless the relationships in my life and help me to prioritize them according to Your perfect plan. Above all, I pray that we would grow closer each day. Help me to know you better so I can better give myself to others. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

Look at the relationships in your life. Take note as to how much time you are spending on each of them.

Set a date with the people in your life who need your time. Schedule your time with God daily and write it on your daily planner if you have one. Plan a date with your husband and arrange for a sitter if needed. Sit down and listen to your children one on one. Let them know you are interested in them. Plan a fun girls' night out next month. Maybe go to dinner or a movie or play tennis with a friend. Just remember to keep God's perspective and balance when making your plans.

As this New Year begins, let us work on all of our relationships. But let us concentrate first and foremost on our relationship with God. Maybe setting aside a special time each month during Church of Our Lady's Day of Adoration would be the best start.

Taken from Daily Devotionals, Nov. 2006

Let us begin the New Year of 2007 by working on the relationships in our lives!!!
